

CALL FOR PAPERS ISRM 2015

ISRM 2015 aims to bring together researchers, industrials and students involved in a broad range of disciplines related to Robotics and Mechatronics, in an intimate and stimulating environment in order to disseminate their results and to exchange about future works, trends and challenges.

Topics : Papers are solicited on topics related with robotics and mechatronics, including but not limited to: mechanism design ▪ modeling and simulation ▪ kinematics and dynamics of multibody systems ▪ control methods ▪ navigation and motion planning ▪ sensors and actuators ▪ bio-robotics ▪ micro/nano-robotics ▪ complex robotic systems ▪ walking machines, humanoids ▪ parallel kinematic structures: analysis and synthesis ▪ smart devices ▪ new design ▪ application and prototypes.

Contributed Papers : Original papers must be submitted in PDF format. Manuscript templates are available on the conference website. Only papers for which at least one author has registered for ISRM 2015 will be accepted for the conference and be included in the proceedings. The proceedings of ISRM 2015 will be published by Springer bookseries on «Mechanisms and Machine Science».

Technical Tours will be proposed to the participants to the major research institutions with R&D activities in robotics and mechatronics.

Social Programs will be prepared for the delegates. Programs for accompanying person and post-conference tours to the surrounding region can be arranged upon request.

Venue : The conference will be held in Poitiers which is the capital of the middle west region of France called Poitou-Charentes. The University of Poitiers is one of oldest university in France, founded in 1431. Nowadays, with 25% of the population who are students, Poitiers is considered as the 1st College Town in France.
